1. Which of the following best describes why Scrum Teams refer to the Product Backlog as a living artifact?

1 / 1 point

- ☐ The Product Owner only adds items at the end of a Sprint.
- ☐ The stakeholders can add items at any time.
- ☒ The Product Owner adds items at any time.
- ☐ The team only adds items at the end of a Sprint.

✔ Correct

2. Fill in the blank: As a Product Owner writing a user story, you want every task to have a clear Definition of Done. A clear Definition of Done helps the team better understand how much effort it will take to complete an item. Including a Definition of Done in a user story makes it _____, one of the I.N.V.E.S.T. story-writing criteria.
