

✔ Congratulations! You passed!

Grade
received 100%

Latest Submission
Grade 100%

To pass 80% or higher

Go to next item

1. Which of the following are phases of the project life cycle? Select all that apply.

1 / 1 point

☒ Close the project

✔ Correct

☐ Improve and control

☒ Execute and complete tasks

✔ Correct

☒ Initiate the project

✔ Correct

2. Why should project managers always make a plan (phase two) before executing and completing tasks (phase three)?

1 / 1 point

- ☒ Because creating a budget, setting a schedule, and determining roles and responsibilities is crucial to executing and completing tasks
- ☐ Because creating a budget, setting a schedule, and determining roles and responsibilities is crucial to developing the project charter
- ☐ Because executing and completing tasks is crucial to creating a budget, setting a schedule, and determining roles and responsibilities
- ☐ Because executing and completing tasks is crucial to understanding scope, cost, and timeline

✔ Correct

3. As a project manager, your team is creating a product that will require flexibility—changes are likely to occur. Also, tasks will overlap or happen at the same time as other tasks. Which project management methodology is the best for your project?

1 / 1 point

- ☒ Iterative methodology
- ☐ Waterfall methodology
- ☐ Circular methodology
- ☐ Linear methodology

✔ Correct

4. Which answer best describes the Waterfall project management methodology?

1 / 1 point

- ☒ Created in the seventies, the Waterfall methodology refers to the sequential ordering of phases, including initiating, planning, executing, and closing.
- ☐ Created in the eighties, the Waterfall methodology refers to being able to move quickly and easily through a project by combining and eliminating tasks.
- ☐ Created in the eighties, the Waterfall methodology refers to the sequential ordering of phases, including defining, measuring, analyzing, improving, and controlling.
- ☐ Created in the nineties, the Waterfall methodology refers to being able to move quickly and easily through a project by working on many tasks at once.

✔ Correct

5. As a project manager, your team is launching a new product. Each step to launch the product includes clearly defined tasks. A task won't begin until another task ends. Also, once the project starts, any changes to the product will be expensive. Which project management methodology is best for this project?

1 / 1 point

- ☐ Scrum methodology
- ☒ Waterfall methodology
- ☐ Lean Six Sigma methodology

☐ Agile methodology

✓ Correct

6. As a project manager, your team is improving one of your client's current sales conversion processes. This is a complex project with many steps. It's also high-risk. One missed step could cost your client significant potential revenue. Which project management methodology is best for this project?

1 / 1 point

- ☐ Linear methodology
- ☒ Lean Six Sigma methodology
- ☐ Waterfall methodology
- ☐ Sequential methodology

✓ Correct

7. Which of the following are project manager responsibilities during the planning phase? Select all that apply.

1 / 1 point

☒ Create a budget

✓ Correct

☒ Establish the team

✓ Correct

☐ Get project approval

☒ Set the schedule

✓ Correct

8. Which of the following are project manager responsibilities during the execution phase? Select all that apply.

1 / 1 point

☒ Handle communication for the team

✓ Correct

☒ Make adjustments to the schedule, budget, and resources

✓ Correct

☐ Do the majority of the work

☒ Manage the project's progress

✓ Correct

9. In which project plan phase does the project manager celebrate successes and release the team to support other projects within the company?

1 / 1 point

- ☒ Close the project
- ☐ Make a plan
- ☐ Execute the project
- ☐ Initiate the project

✓ Correct

10. Which project management approach uses the 5S quality tool and implements a Kanban scheduling system to manage production?

1 / 1 point

- ☐ Waterfall
- ☐ Agile
- ☐ Scrum
- ☒ Lean

✓ Correct